MORE RECORDS LOWERED.

The breaking of two track records and a disqualification of a winner were the principal features of the last day but one of Hawthorne's first two weeks' meeting.

The track records to go were the mile and the mile and one-sixteenth. The latter was lowered twice during the afternoon. Einer ran the distance in 1:47 in the fourth race, which took a full second off the best previous performance, which was 1:48, made by Fakir June 7, 1895. In the last race Uarda came along and knocked Einer's performance into a cocked hat. She went the distance in 1:46.

Tenby was the gentleman to make a new mark at one mile. He carried 105 pounds and won handsomely in 1:39, lowering Boney By and Benneville's marks of a few days previous, a quarter of a second.

Antiquary was the unfortunate horse to be disqualified and although he was by far the best of the lot he was in with and won by an open length he committed a foul at the head of the stretch and was justly set back.

It was a seven furlong race and Cheval d'Or, on the strength of his smart second at the same distance to Eugenia Wickes the day before, was installed favorite and backed from 8 to 5 down to 6 to 5. He went out in front the first part of it and tried to stop Antiquary but instead of doing that raced himself to defeat.

On the far turn Antiquary had everything his own way, but just before the stretch was reached Rose Apple moved up rapidly. The latter was on the outside of Antiquary, who as soon as the stretch was reached tried to run out. He, of course, carried Rose Apple with him. Rutter, seeing he had no chance to win with the filly on the extreme outside, wasted no time in pulling up and going inside of Antiquary. About the same time that Dupree made this move Rutter drew his whip, and Antiquary, who was not up to such a bruising race, swerved in from it and again impeded Rose Apple.

To those that saw the race it was dollars to doughnuts that Antiquary would be disqualified long before Dupree made his claim. The boy wasted no time after making his weight and the judges acted promptly after hearing both of the boys' stories.

Rose Apple, the one that suffered by the interference, was not fortunate enough to finish second, and Pat Garrett, who beat her about half a length, was given the race. Rose Apple was placed second, and Cheval d'Or, who ran a bad race, third.

Tenby's mile in 1:39 was the best performance of the meeting and stamps him to be the good horse Sydney Bender claimed he was this spring. Nutt rode him and a more perfectly judged ride is seldom seen. He waited far back of the pacemakers through the first five furlongs, run in 1:00, and making his move at the three furlongs post, he was in front when the stretch was reached. It did not take much urging to shake Serrano off, as the early fast pace had cooked him, and Tenby fighting for his head, romped home four lengths in the lead.

There was only one close finish during the day and that was between In Debt and Mitten in the second race. The former was backed from 30 to 1 down to 25 to 1 and less, and Vitatote by clever hand riding clearly outfinished Trotter on Mitten and won by a nose in the very last stride.

Thirteen cheap maidens started in the first race and it took Starter Dwyer almost twenty minutes before he could get them away. Tulane was fortunate in getting off in the first flight, and, having good luck throughout, won in a drive from the 80 to 1 chance, Title.

Einer, at the liberal price of 44 to 1, won the fourth race, running away and Uarda took the final one in the same manner.

There will be a clerk at Hawthorne at 10 o'clock this a. m. to take entries for Monday's Harlem races.

Jockey Everett left last night for St. Louis to ride Billy House in the Derby today.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A dispatch from Chillicothe, O., the day after Imp won the Suburban said:

"Everybody at the Harness home is overjoyed at their favorite's success, Miss Harness failing to sleep at all Saturday night, and in consequence was almost prostrated with nervous headache yesterday. Miss Virginia is the youngest one of Uncle Den's daughters, and all her life has been deeply interested in her father's fine horses. She helped to raise Imp, and she was always her especial favorite. She has followed the little mare's career with unfailing interest, and thinks there never was and never will be one quite so good.

"Miss Harness is a petite blond, a very charming, attractive young lady and an exceedingly pleasant conversationalist. That she has a remarkably retentive mind is shown by the fact that she knows all of Imp's forty-three victories, with the date, place, rider, weight and time, and can tell of all or any of them without reference to any record. She is the sole owner of Imp, her father having made her a present of the black queen about four months ago. Mr. Harness is a sufferer from heart trouble, and, after an especially severe attack, decided to place the mare in hands where he knew she would be well taken care of, and accordingly gave her to Miss Virginia. One hundred thousand dollars would not be any inducement for Miss Harness to part with her.

"Next to Imp Miss Harness's favorite on the farm is a half brother of Imp, a two-year-old, unnamed, by Palestine. He is one of the finest looking colts in this vicinity, and Mr. and Miss Harness expect him to make a record equal to his sister's when he starts out next season."

Secretary Ed Hopper, of the Latonia Jockey Club, is preparing a stake race for two-year-olds that, when it is run, will attract the best youngsters in the country and will be in the nature of a Futurity. The stake will be called the Matron, and will be for foals of 1900 which will make their first running in 1902. Secretary Hopper has not as yet framed the conditions of the big race, but yesterday he gave out a few of them. Mares will have to be nominated before the last of October, 1899; $2,000 will be added by the club and it is expected the stake will be worth between $15,000 and $20,000. Its first running will be during the spring meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club in 1902 and it will be split into two races. The total value of the race will be split, the colts racing for 60 per cent and the fillies for the remaining 40 per cent. Secretary Hopper expects that the stake will attract the crack two-year-olds of the country, and that it will do much toward restoring racing in the west, as eastern owners will no doubt make liberal entries. Secretary Hopper is now busily engaged in framing the conditions of the great race, and expects to announce them in a couple of weeks. —Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

"Edward Corrigan's great two-year-old Golden Rule will have a chance to measure strides with the eastern cracks at Saratoga," remarked George Tuttle, manager of the Burns & Waterhouse racing establishment. "Golden Rule is just such a colt as Ornament was in his two-year-old form, a short-coupled, stockily-made chestnut, with a marvelous turn of speed and the tenacity and gameness of a bulldog. Ornament, however, always had a villainous disposition, if I remember correctly, while Mr. Corrigan's colt is just the opposite.

"In his races at San Francisco last spring he never failed to act like a gentleman, behaving beautifully before the barrier and running as straight as a string. He demonstrated weight-packing ability, and I am satisfied that he will make a sweet colt over a distance of ground, if he stands. He invariably pulled up lame in all his races at Frisco, and was priced at $6,000 shortly before he was shipped east this spring. I am satisfied that he can beat any two-year-old I have seen perform at the Fair Grounds."

Jim McLaughlin was a little disappointed at the defeat of his colt Charentus by Merry Prince.

"Your colt ran a good race, only beaten a head in 1:46. That's faster than Charentus ever thought of running before," said a visitor.

"That's all right! I don't say anything about the horse's race, but what I complain about is the way the jockeys ride nowadays. They are looking around and about them too much, instead of looking to the front and watching their own horse. A jockey doesn't want to look around for a horse coming. All he wants to watch for is the shadow. He can see that without twisting his neck around. I ought to know—I've watched for it often enough."—Morning Telegraph.

The famous English racehorse and sire, Galopin, is dead. He was a brown horse, foaled 1872, by Vedette—The Flying Duchess, by The Flying Dutchman, out of Merope, by Voltaire. He won the Derby in 1875 and a number of other races during his turf career, and in the stud has been a brilliant success as a sire. To his credit are St. Simon, the leading sire of England today; Donovan, winner of the Derby and St. Leger and over one hundred winners, among them Galleotte, Galliard, Galore, etc. He has had a long career in the stud and his great potency as a sire is shown not only by the performances of his get on the turf, but in the stud.

Miss Woodford, the undisputed Queen of the American turf back in the eighties died at Rancho del Paso last month. The memory of her great contests with Freeland when that mighty son of Longfellow was in his prime is still fresh in the minds of the elder generation of turfmen. She was everything an owner could desire in a racehorse and it is a matter for regret that none of her sons or daughters inherited her greatness. She leaves a fine filly foal by Goldfinch, which is reported as thriving and doing well despite the death of its mother.

T. C. McDowell has changed his mind about shipping to Brighton Beach and he will, instead, send his stable along with that of Clay Bros. to Saratoga. Batten, Spirituelle, Rush, His Excellency and Monarda will comprise the McDowell string, while Kilmarnock and two others will be in the Clay Bros' lot. They will be shipped on July 1 and will be rested at Saratoga until the meeting at that track begins.

C. T. Patterson's promising two-year-old colt Kentucky, by Kingston—Meta, who was cut down in the race for the National Stallion Stakes, is coming around all right, and it is thought he may be able to face the flag during the Sheepshead Bay meeting.

Mr. H. P. Headley has a right to feel some pride in the fact that Vulcan, winner of the Great American, was bred at La Belle, while Missionary, second in the same stake, was bred at Mr. Headley's other stock farm, Beaumont. —Thoroughbred Record.

THE BELLE MEADE SALE.

Forty Belle Meade yearling colts were sold by the American Horse Exchange Company in New York Tuesday for the high average of $1,153, no fillies being offered. A chestnut by Iroquois—Toribera brought the top price, $5,200, but the Loyalist—Yorkville Belle colt and the Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward colt at $5,000 each were hard after him in the quotations. Eugene Leigh secured the half brother to Clifford for $4,500. The record of the sale is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Riley Grannan expresses himself greatly pleased with the racing he saw in England and more particularly likes the racing on the grass. So far from experiencing any difficulty about getting his money on at a fair price, as has been said, he found that he could bet just as much as he wanted without making any appreciable effect on the market.

After May Hempstead ran her great race at Sheepshead Bay on Monday in 1:39½ Mr. August Belmont, who witnessed the performance, offered Messrs. Headley & Norton, her owners, $25,000 for her. May Hempstead, Admiration,
Imp and Briar Sweet are now rated by eastern critics as the greatest quartet of mares seen in years.

Senator J. S. O'Brien has purchased of F. B.
Turpin the bay filly Lady Curzon, 2, by Prime Minister—Octa Reed.

Sir Walter has been taken up again and will be prepared for the fall races at Morris Park.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records
(by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents
and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

Winner—Br. c. by Sir Modred—Faux Pas.
Post 17 minutes. Start good. Won driving and cut to the last ounce; second and third were doing their best. Tulane got a perfect ride. Everett was in a good position and was never interfered with during the journey. Tulane wanted to quit at the end, but the boy would not have it that way and by hard work kept him going long enough to win. Title was lucky to get the place. He got through a small hole at the head of the stretch, thereby saving much ground. Defender II ran his race at the post. He fretted a lot and was on the prance all the time. Charlo quit to a walk in the stretch. Vaseline also tired. Stella ran a good race.
Scratched—12905 Laroquoise, 109; (12689)Chenier, 109; 12908 Caduceus, 113; 12774 Forensic, 107; 12758 Radaire, 107.
Overweight—May Droit, 1 pound.
Tulane, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Title, place, 20 to 1; show, 8 to 1. Defender II, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g. by Blazer—Miss Alce.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second, third and fourth were also under full sail. In Debt had clear sailing and ran a good race. He stood a drive from the head of the stretch home gamely. With a stronger rider up Mitten would have won. Trotter was of no help whatever. Azua ran a clever race. Hart saw he had no chance to win and did not abuse the filly through the stretch. Irene Hayes was raced to exhaustion the first half. Ocorno and Lord Weir were both badly interfered with shortly after the start. Throw the latter's race out. Kuhn pulled him up and ran all around his field.
Scratched—12481 Brown Thrush, 105; 12071 Diana Fonso, 105; 12802 Hattie Fox, 105; 12880 Creation, 108.
In Debt, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Mitten, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Azua, show, 4 to 1. Lord Weir, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—B. c. by Tenny—Soprano.
Post 2 minutes. Start good for all but Our Johnny. Won easily; second handily after an early drive; third eased up. Tenby ran a cracking good race under an excellently judged ride. Nott lay far out of it the first part of the journey and escaped the early pace, which was very fast. He never made a move until the three furlong post was reached, and then Tenby moved to the front like a flash. When the stretch was reached he had the race in hand. Serrano and Benneville were each other out in the first part of it. The former was not as good a horse as he was in his last race. Our Johnny bolted at the start. The time made is a new track record.
Tenby, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Serrano, place, out. Afamada, show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Bolus—Nita.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second whipped out; third and fourth were driving hard. Eimer was the best and won off by himself all the way. He is a fair selling player and improves with every race. Henry Launt ran an improved race. He is a big, long striding horse and was in a bad position all the way. Freeman was continually taking him up to avoid jumping on those in front of him. Woodranger was right there all the way. Len seems to be of no account and Uncle ABB less. Ramona could not outrun a fat man. Ben Waddell was stiff and sore.
Scratched—12806 Sir Hobart, 107; 12716 Winslow, 111.
Eimer, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Henry Launt, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Woodranger, show, evens. Uncle ABB, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Disqualified for foul.
Winner—Ch. g. by Panique—Soprano.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Antiquary was the best but was barely ready. He bore out in the stretch and took Rose Apple with him. Dupee, on Rose Apple was obliged to pull up and try to go through on the inside. At about the same time she started to change her position. Rutter began to whip Antiquary and to get away from the whip the colt swerved in, interfering again with Rose Apple. After weighing in Dupee claimed foul and the judges promptly allowed it. Pat Garrett came to life with a start and ran a greatly improved race. Cheval d'Or's race Thursday behind Eugenia Wickes evidently took the edge from his speed. St. Aloysius is a good looking but was not ready.
Pat Garrett, place, 5 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Rose Apple, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Cheval d'Or, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Antiquary, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Strathmore—Zuhlan.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next three were doing their best. Uarda was in a soft spot and won running away. She is at her best now. The Winner closed stoutly. Possum quit in the stretch. Hosi ran an improved race and is evidently rounding to. Benamela ran below the mark. Dalgretti was beaten off a half of the way. Uarda set a new track record for the distance.
Scratched—12773 Bethlehem Star, 107; 12909 Kamsin, 115.
Uarda, place, 1 to 2; show, out. The Winner, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Possum, show, 4 to 1. Benamela, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.
